Product Description

5.5L Household Air Dehumidifier With Hidden Handle

Our dehumidifier is a rotary dehumidifier, uses evaporative condensation technology, no compressor and no freon. The unique rotary technology reduces the noise carried by the compressor, and can create a quiet and comfortable environment in both home and office places. Even in cold winter, it can still provide efficient dry clothes dehumidification. The technology comes with high temperature which brings the sterilization effect of sun exposure. Its weight is less than 10KG, and it is more convenient to move. Because of no standing, it is not only convenient, but also greatly shortens the time cost. In daily life, the functions of dehumidification and clothes drying are switched at will.
